THE LONE EAGLE LEAVES

All America surely reads with alarm and dismay the news that Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh and second son have moved to England to establish permanent residence on account of the fact that renewed threats against their son, Jon, have convinced them that America cannot protect their family.

The uneasy war and cry over the land of sympathy unwarranted evidence for Bruno Richard Hauptmann, arch kidnaper of the age, also probably had something to do with their decision to leave this country.

Mothers and fathers will appreciate the emotions of the citizens who earned the title of "the heart of the nation."

Their home hospital, their near son threatened, their arch sympathy throughout the land, no one can blame them for looking with envious eyes to the safe shores of England, where no one is promptly hung and crime is not a constant threat to one's home.

America gave generously of fame and money and publicity to Cal.
him as our national idol. Money, prestige and prestige were his. But as big as is our country we could not give his family protection.

Meanwhile, the tabloids and even usually respectable daily papers cry proven kidnaper, Bruno Richard Hauptmann, working the public
up to a state of mind
which many would applaud if parade were given him by the state of New Jersey.

Better than Charles A. Lindbergh in America than a million Bruno Hauptmanns. We congratulate old England upon raising so noteworthy a citizen.

Order of Publication.

In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Appomattox County, on the 23rd day of November 1935, Loveline Bryant Watson, Plaintiff vs.
William E. Watson, Defendant.

The object of this suit is for the plaintiff Loveline Bryant Watson, to obtain from the defendant, William E. Watson, working the public
of New Jersey.

A meeting of Isopoda growers was held Tuesday night here to discuss the sale of Isopoda seed.
The growers worked on a lot for the sale of 30,000 pounds of seed to the government for use in the local soil erosion demonstration.

Laxative combination

folks know it's trustworthy

This combination of particulars in a good, reliable, proven Black-Draught has prompted them to get the new Black-Draught for their children.
The grown folks stick to the proved Black-Draught; the youngsters probably will prefer it when they outgrow their childish love of sweet treats.

Mrs. C. W. Adams, of Murray, Ky., writes: "I have used Black-Draught for years, taking it for biliousness, Black-Draught will sell all I
